The 11th Annual WP Educational Technology Conference (ONLINE)

Embracing Emerging Trends:
Effective Online Teaching Strategies and Tools for P-12 Educators

Friday, November 13th, 2020
8:30 AM - 3:00 PM, EST

The goal of this year's online conference is to offer insights, teaching strategies, tools, and best practices for engaging, interactive, sustainable, and feasible online courses geared for P-12 teachers, technology coordinators, school librarians, and administrators. Conference participants will have opportunities to interact with experts and peers on emerging online and blended learning issues.

Program Chairs: Heejung An, EdD & Pei-Lin Weng, PhD

Keynote Session: Dr. Curtis J. Bonk, Indiana University

Title: Education 20/20 meets Education 4.0: Visions of Our Changing Learning World

This is the age of Education 3.0 where learning is more informal, resource-rich, and self-directed and where learner creation of products is the new norm, often with the use of digital media. During the past few years, learning has become increasingly collaborative, global, mobile, flipped, modifiable, open, online, blended, massive, visually-based, hands-on, ubiquitous, instantaneous, on-demand, adaptive, and personal. In this age, the best instructors and experts today are most effective as curators, counselors, consultants, concierges, and cultivators of our learning.

Topics in breakout workshops will include:

- A Taste of Online Tools: An Introduction to Selected Apps for the Classroom
- A Vision for Foundational Tools and Resources to Support Online Distance Teaching and Learning in the Large Urban School District
- Accessing Universal Design for Learning in the Virtual Environment
- Administration Technology Tips & Tools to Deal with the "New Normal"
